DESCRIPTION

On January 13, 2022, the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) issued a stay on the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) emergency temporary standard (ETS) requiring employers with 100 or more employees to ensure that their employees are either fully vaccinated or subject to COVID-19 testing at least once per week. Join this webinar for a discussion of what this ruling means for employers regarding the vaccination status of employees.
