

Ogletree Deakins | IntelliCase™

Employment Dispute Monitor

Employment disputes are inevitable in today's legal and regulatory environment. More than ever, you need tools to help manage disputes that have resulted in claims efficiently and effectively, and to identify trends, risks, and opportunities to reduce future claims. IntelliCase from Ogletree Deakins empowers you by providing the information and insight you need to accomplish both objectives.

Up-to-Date Information:

IntelliCase puts key data at your fingertips in real time. Through a secure, web-based dashboard, you can monitor detailed information throughout the entire matter lifecycle of the disputes our lawyers are handling for you, including dispute type, claim type, status, venue, resolution, and additional data points that are customized to your needs.

Actionable Insights:

IntelliCase tracks a multitude of data points related to each dispute and synthesizes them into dynamic, interactive visualizations that help you identify trends and uncover problem areas across your organization.

Comprehensive Coverage:

IntelliCase provides coverage across a wide range of employment disputes, including agency charges, single/multi-plaintiff litigations, class and collective actions, and employment arbitration.

With IntelliCase, you have the power to monitor employment disputes and minimize risk intelligently, while limiting legal spend and improving overall value.
