

STATE LEAVE LAWS

Many states have their own paid and unpaid leave requirements on a wide variety of issues, such as blood donation, court attendance, domestic violence/sexual trauma, election duty, volunteer fire fighter duty, family medical and sick time, jury duty, military/civil air patrol, organ donation, school activity/visitation, and voting.

For companies with employees in multiple states throughout the country, it is becoming more and more burdensome to comply with these ever-changing state leave requirements.

OD COMPLY: STATE LEAVE LAWS provides an up-to-date compilation of state leave requirements and a concise guide to legal compliance along with the nuances of the applicable leave requirements in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. During the 12-month subscription period, you will receive legal updates on new leave requirements from across the country as well as practical advice on how these leave requirements affect your business.
