

Ogletree Deakins EEO Advantage administrative charges program is an innovative solution for employers seeking to manage efficiently and cost-effectively their administrative agency charges.

The Benefits of Ogletree Deakins EEO Advantage

Streamlined Project Management. EEO Advantage leverages the firm's client-focused technology platforms and advanced legal project management experience to help employers manage charges proactively and with budget certainty.

An Experienced, Dedicated Team. Our EEO Advantage lawyers have years of experience responding to and resolving agency charges, and they devote their practices primarily to defending employers against administrative agency charges.

Cost-Effective Pricing. EEO Advantage offers clients that have significant annual volumes of charges fixed-fee pricing per position statement for individual charges, and competitive hourly rates for post-position statement agency activities.

Innovative Technology. IntelliCase™, Ogletree Deakins' proprietary matter-tracking software application, gives clients access to detailed data and analytics on their EEO Advantage matters in an easy-to-use, web-based platform.

Ogletree
Deakins | EEO ADVANTAGE™
administrative charges program