

Presented by Ogletree Deakins'

NASHVILLE OFFICE

You're invited to an informative and educational briefing to address key ethics issues for in-house counsel.

THE INTERSECTION OF ETHICS AND L&E LAW

The practice of labor and employment (L&E) law commonly implicates a number of ethics issues, and properly addressing them is of paramount importance. In this interactive session, the speakers will discuss practical tips for spotting and addressing common ethics issues encountered in the L&E arena. The discussion will include issues related to the no-contact rule, conflicts of interest, the organization as client, client confidential information, advocacy, and communications with unrepresented individuals.

Presenters: Jonathan O. Harris and Wendy V. Miller
