

FEBRUARY 28, 2020

YOU'RE INVITED

Ogletree
Deakins

The Greenville office of
OGLETREE DEAKINS

presents a complimentary lunch and learn:

LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT POLICY IN 2020: VIEWS FROM D.C. AND SOUTH CAROLINA

An informative and educational briefing to address the latest labor and employment law
topics impacting employers

LOCATION

The Ogletree Building
Haynsworth Conference Center
300 North Main Street
Greenville, SC 29601
(864) 271-1300

DATE AND TIME

Friday, February 28, 2020
12:30 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.
(Registration and lunch will begin at noon.)

COST

Complimentary
(Lunch and program materials are included.)

The 2020 political races have commenced, and nowhere is this felt more acutely than in Washington, D.C. Join Jim Plunkett and Al Robinson as they offer insight into what to expect on the employment and labor law front and address how these political dynamics will affect the workplace. This session will also provide a rundown of legislative and regulatory developments pending in the South Carolina General Assembly and on Capitol Hill. Regulators in federal agencies are racing to tie up their respective agendas, and high-level personnel changes at the U.S. Department of Labor, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, and the National Labor Relations Board will likely affect regulatory plans and enforcement protocols.

Moderator: Kirsten Peterson (Greenville)

Speakers:

James J. Plunkett (Washington, D.C.)

Alfred B. Robinson, Jr. (Greenville/Washington, D.C.)

REGISTRATION

Register online at www.ogletree.com or contact Alison Miller at (864) 241-1822 or alison.miller@ogletree.com.

This program has been approved for 1 hour of credit by the HR Certification Institute and SHRM for was also approved for 1 hour of South Carolina CLE credit.