DESCRIPTION

The Supreme Court's ruling on the use of affirmative action in college admissions has major ramifications beyond the higher education setting and certainly will impact employers with diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) programs, federal contractor obligations, and ESG practices. This session will examine the case and provide guidance on actions employers should take to ensure their DEI practices are successful and compliant under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The speakers also will discuss the expected backlash from the decision and examine any increase in complaints and litigation alleging that such programming is unlawful.
