DESCRIPTION

Arizona employers face myriad changes and emerging trends that will affect their workplaces in 2020. Join this webinar for updates on developments at the federal, state, and local levels, including minimum wage increases under federal law, Arizona's Fair Wages and Healthy Families Act, and Flagstaff's Minimum Wage Law. Additional topics will include new methods in Arizona to obtain injunctions against workplace harassment; the U.S. Department of Labor's overtime rule, which imposes a new salary threshold; and the National Labor Relations Board's new clearance for employers to demand confidentiality during investigations. This session will also provide insight into potential Arizona legislation and voter initiatives on recreational marijuana and pay raises for some healthcare workers.
