

Autism in the Workplace: A Practice Guide for Employers

Join us for an insightful webinar that will explore how employers can develop more inclusive hiring practices and workplace accommodations for individuals on the autism spectrum. With approximately 2 percent of U.S. adults diagnosed with autism and the number of diagnoses on the rise, it is essential for employers to understand their legal obligations under the ADA and the benefits of a neurodiverse workforce. Learn practical strategies for providing reasonable accommodations, fostering an inclusive workplace culture, and enhancing your hiring process to better support and empower employees with autism.
