ICYMI—WHAT'S NEW FOR 2023

Now that the pandemic has slowed down, the California legislature and state courts are issuing new employee-friendly laws and decisions at pre-pandemic levels. For 2023, the California legislature amended a number of existing laws and enacted new laws while the California Supreme Court issued employee-friendly opinions. This webinar will cover the new pay transparency requirements, bereavement leave, changes to paid sick leave and the California Family Rights Act, and more. Join us for highlights of the latest California developments with a special focus on proactive ways to manage the changes and practical takeaways.
