DESCRIPTION

With President Trump's signing of the CARES Act on March 27, 2020, emergency provisions have been enacted to attempt to stabilize the United States economy and help protect employers and employees during the COVID-19 crisis. This webinar will address the requirements and impacts of the CARES Act on employers. The speakers will discuss employers' access to loans, payroll tax delays and credits, as well as increased opportunities for employees to access retirement funds, the impact on unemployment, and updates to the Families First Coronavirus Response Act.
