DESCRIPTION

Since March 2020, Maryland has issued a Declaration of Emergency and other increasingly stringent closure orders, expanded unemployment compensation benefits for impacted employees, and taken additional measures in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. In this webinar, the speakers will discuss the latest developments and identify key areas for employers, including:

- the interplay of state and local measures with related federal mandates and those of neighboring jurisdictions;
- layoffs and furloughs;
- paid leave laws; and
- wage payment issues.
