DESCRIPTION

Governor Charlie Baker has taken various actions to address the impact of the COVID-19 crisis in the state of Massachusetts. On March 31, 2020, Governor Baker extended his “stay-at-home” executive order through May 4, 2020. In this webinar, the speakers will discuss the constantly changing legal landscape and address a range of COVID-19-related issues affecting Massachusetts employers, including:

- paid leave and benefits requirements;
- work closure orders and essential business exemptions; and
- state unemployment insurance laws.

Please note that CLE and HRCI/SHRM credit will not be available for this program.
