DESCRIPTION

In this webinar, the speakers will address the key legal and practical considerations for employers with operations in North Carolina and South Carolina as workplaces reopen. Topics to be addressed will include:

- the current legal parameters for reopening workplaces in North Carolina and South Carolina, and the practical considerations;
- the disproportionate impact of COVID-19 on certain employee populations and related workplace issues (including protected expression in the workplace);
- what is coming down the road as employers transition to the summer months, including related leave issues;
- continued safety measures and employee refusals to return to work; and
- unemployment issues in North Carolina and South Carolina.
