DESCRIPTION

As usual, the California legislature was busy in 2023. In this timely webinar, the speakers will review key legislative developments, including new background check requirements, antidiscrimination protections, noncompete prohibitions, paid sick leave requirements, and enhanced workplace safety and health standards. The speakers will also provide tips on updating workplace policies and practices to prepare for 2024.

This new monthly webinar series continues our popular “Betsy’s Briefings—Coffee, Tea, and California Employment Law” series hosted by Betsy Johnson, and will cover common California labor and employment law topics.*
