Join us for the second part of our webinar series, where we explore the key aspects of California wage and hour compliance as outlined in the California Labor Code. This webinar will cover important topics such as the definitions of “exempt” and “non-exempt” employees, how to avoid misclassifying employees, and insights on expense reimbursement policies. The speakers will also discuss the use of electronic payroll and direct deposit, meal period attestations and waivers, and deductions from wages. This webinar is designed to equip you with the knowledge needed to navigate California’s complex wage and hour regulations, helping your business stay informed and compliant.
