DESCRIPTION

Join us as we walk through practical tips for updating employee handbooks and policies for California employers. This webinar will provide a general overview of essential provisions to include in your handbooks and the reasons behind them. The speakers will also discuss new California employment legislation and considerations for 2025, including:

- The new protected category definition for harassment, discrimination, and retaliation policies
- Time off and leave policies, including Paid Family Leave
- Driver's license discrimination
- Expansion of workplace protections for victims of violence
- The Freelance Worker Protection Act
