DESCRIPTION

As California's economy continues to reopen, Senate Bill (SB) 93 creates new obligations for certain California employers to provide written job offers to employees whom they laid off because of the COVID-19 pandemic. In this webinar, the speakers will explain to which employers the new law applies, employers' recall obligations and the process they must use to comply with those obligations, enforcement, penalties, recordkeeping requirements, and more. The speakers will respond to the frequently asked questions they already have received and provide best practices for employer compliance.
