WEBINAR

From SB 553 to Cal/OSHA's Draft Regulation: Preparing for Workplace Violence Compliance in 2027

California employers are getting ready for the next phase of workplace violence prevention compliance. Join this webinar for a practical look at the current status of Cal/OSHA's draft regulation and what it may entail for 2027. The speakers will share best practices and lessons learned from the initial years of SB 553, as well as discuss the evolution towards the draft regulation, highlighting the differences and adjustments that California employers should begin to consider. Attendees will leave with a clear set of action items to implement in 2027.
