Join us for an insightful webinar that will explore the key aspects of California wage and hour compliance as outlined in the California Labor Code. The webinar will cover important topics such as the definition of “hours worked,” effective timekeeping and record retention policies, and the nuances of rounding time. The speakers will also discuss meal period attestations and waivers, overtime calculations and the “regular rate of pay,” the requirements for itemized wage statements, and recent changes to the Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA). This webinar is designed to equip you with the knowledge needed to navigate California’s complex wage and hour regulations, helping your business stay informed and compliant.
