DESCRIPTION

Part three in our Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation webinar series will offer practical insights on two key challenges facing health and welfare benefit plans in mid-2023. The speakers will focus on the range of legal, administrative, and plan design challenges presented by the expected end of the federal COVID-19 emergency orders on May 11, and the related July 10 end of the “outbreak period.” In addition, the speakers will address the discrete impact of the California Privacy Rights Act on welfare plans ahead of the July 1, 2023, enforcement date.
