DESCRIPTION

As the influence of artificial intelligence (AI) in the workplace grows, it brings a myriad of ethical considerations for in-house counsel. In this webinar, the speakers will equip attendees with the knowledge and tools to ethically guide their organizations in integrating AI technologies. Topics will include applying the Model Rules of Professional Conduct to emerging technologies, using AI tools for legal tasks, and evaluating AI systems to prevent unauthorized access to confidential information and inherent biases. Hypothetical scenarios will illustrate AI's application in the workplace and its relation to Model Rules 1.1, 1.4, 2.1, 3.3, and 8.4.
