

FAR Overhaul: Tips to Survive the Biggest Procurement Shake-Up in 40 Years

The federal government is undertaking its most significant overhaul of procurement rules in over four decades—and the implications for employers from recent executive orders (EO) and the “FAR Overhaul” are substantial. Join Scott Kelly and Joseph Ashman, co-chairs of the firm’s Government Contractor and Reporting Practice Group, as they break down the reforms under EO 14275, “Restoring Common Sense to Federal Procurement,” and EO 14173, “Ending Illegal Discrimination and Restoring Merit-Based Opportunity.” They will discuss heightened False Claims Act exposure related to contracts and grant funding, as well as critical changes to labor and employment obligations under FAR Part 22. Whether you are a federal contractor, a grant recipient, or part of any organization that utilizes federal funds, this webinar will help you understand the risks ahead and how to prepare.
