DESCRIPTION

On April 2, 2020, the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) will go into effect, changing the legal requirements related to employee benefits and leaves of absence. Join us for a webinar that will address the ramifications of the new law and best practices for employers implementing its provisions. The speakers will discuss key elements of the FFCRA, including:

- expanded Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) coverage and eligibility;
- requirements of the new public health emergency leave;
- new mandates for paid sick leave;
- the impact of FMLA leave and/or paid leave taken before the FFCRA goes into effect; and
- changes to group health plan coverage.
