DESCRIPTION

Organizations may need to restructure their workforces for a number of reasons and for multinational employers the legal issues and processes are particularly complex. Our Global Reorganizations webinar series, which is designed for company leadership, HR professionals, and attorneys, will offer practical tips for balancing global compliance against the reality of business objectives. In the first webinar, the speakers will review how to plan and implement a multijurisdictional restructuring while mitigating risks. The series will feature attorneys from our Global Reorganizations, RIF/WARN, and Cross-Border Practice Groups, as well as attorneys from our international offices, who will share insights on the legal framework, best practices, and potential risks to consider when restructuring in the United States/Canada, Latin America, the Asia-Pacific region, and Europe, the Middle East, and Africa.
