DESCRIPTION

Organizations may need to restructure their workforces for various reasons. For multinational employers, the legal issues and processes can be particularly complex. In the third installment of our Global Reorganizations webinar series, the speakers will share insights on the legal framework, best practices, and potential risks to consider when restructuring headcounts in Latin America, including Mexico, Brazil, Argentina, and Chile. This webinar, featuring attorneys from our Global Reorganizations and Cross-Border Practice Groups, will offer practical tips for employers carrying out labor termination processes.
