DESCRIPTION

Organizations may need to restructure their workforces for various reasons. For multinational employers, the legal issues and processes can be particularly complex. In the fifth installment of our Global Reorganizations webinar series, the speakers will share insights on the legal framework, best practices—including dealing with works councils—and potential risks to consider when restructuring their headcounts in key European countries such as France, Germany, and the UK. This webinar, featuring attorneys from our Global Reorganizations and Cross-Border Practice Groups, will offer guidelines and practical tips for employers carrying out labor termination processes.
