

WEBINAR

H-1B Visa Program in 2026: Presidential Proclamation on $100,000 Payment for New H-1Bs and the National Interest Exception

SPEAKERS

Jacquelyn P. Maroney (Austin)
Caroline Tang (Austin)
Lisa England, Moderator

DATE

Wednesday, September 24, 2025

TIME

12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m. Pacific
1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. Mountain
2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. Central
3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. Eastern

COST

$99.00
Complimentary for
Ogletree Deakins clients

On September 19, 2025, President Trump issued a Presidential Proclamation, “Restriction of Entry of Certain Nonimmigrant Workers.” This proclamation contemplates that beginning in April 2026, employers must either obtain a national interest exception or pay $100,000 for each new H-1B “cap” petition filed. In this webinar, the speakers will provide a practical overview of the proclamation and the national interest exception, offering essential information for employers as they prepare for the 2026 H-1B cap season. The speakers will also explain what to expect from the U.S. Department of Labor, particularly in relation to the proclamation’s instruction to amend the prevailing wage levels to prioritize highly paid H-1B workers.

Ogletree Deakins

Instructions for participation will be circulated before the webinar. If you have questions about the availability of CLE credits, please email cle@ogletree.com. To request an accommodation for a disability, please email accessibility@ogletree.com as soon as possible.