DESCRIPTION

Join this webinar as attorneys from Ogletree Deakins' Immigration Practice Group discuss the differences between H-2A (agricultural) and H-2B (non-agricultural) work visas and which businesses qualify for each. The speakers will review the H-2B seasons and how the numerical cap process for H-2B visas works, as well as discuss strategies for obtaining temporary workers even if the H-2B cap is met. The webinar will offer timely pointers about the H-2A and H-2B programs and highlight steps to prepare for compliance-related concerns and government enforcement actions that tend to accompany these programs.
