

Immigration Compliance and the Hospitality Workforce

As immigration enforcement and workplace compliance requirements continue to evolve, hospitality employers are navigating heightened scrutiny, operational disruption, and uncertainty around workforce planning. This webinar will examine recent immigration law and policy developments affecting the hospitality industry, with a focus on the practical compliance challenges facing hotels, restaurants, resorts, and related businesses. The speakers will discuss key employer obligations, common risk areas, and practical strategies for maintaining compliance while managing day-to-day workforce needs in a rapidly changing environment.
