DESCRIPTION

The I-9 compliance webinar series is designed for attorneys and HR professionals who are new to the employment eligibility verification process, or who simply want to review the basics. This series will cover the key elements of the compliance framework and the importance of understanding the mechanics of this challenging form. In the first webinar, the speakers will review what constitutes good faith compliance, and the importance of creating internal policies and procedures that ensure I-9s are prepared timely, accurately, and completely, and that I-9 records are properly maintained.
