

I-9 Compliance Series: Part 2—Engaging in Good Faith Compliance

The I-9 compliance webinar series is designed for attorneys and HR professionals who are new to the employment eligibility verification process, seek a refresher, or want to understand the consequences of noncompliant I-9 practices. In the second webinar, the speakers will review what constitutes good faith compliance. They will highlight the importance of creating internal policies and procedures to ensure that I-9 forms are prepared in a timely, accurate, and complete manner and that I-9 records are properly maintained. This webinar will also address potential pitfalls related to audit trails and how to ensure compliance.
