

I-9 Compliance Series: Part 3—HSI Worksite Enforcement Audits and Investigations

The I-9 compliance webinar series is designed for attorneys and HR professionals who are new to the employment eligibility verification process, seek a refresher, or want to understand the consequences of noncompliant I-9 practices. In the third part of the series, the speakers will outline the standard process for Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) audits and investigations and provide practical tips for responding to these enforcement actions. This webinar will also include a discussion of the civil fines matrix and recent changes to both technical and substantive violations.
