

The End of Duration of Status: Navigating DHS's Fixed Admission Period Rule

On July 17, 2026, the Department of Homeland Security published a final rule replacing the current “duration of status” framework with a fixed period of admission for certain visa holders, including F-1 students and J-1 exchange visitors. In this webinar, the speakers will provide a practical overview of the final rule, including implications for OPT and STEM OPT applications, travel considerations, and what employers need to know.
