Canadian labor law practice shares many similarities with that of the United States, but there are also significant differences that can lead to pitfalls for the unwary. This webinar will cover topics such as how to defend against a unionization campaign in Canada, the process of first contract arbitration, the jurisdiction of Canadian labor arbitrators to apply employment-related statutes, among others. Join attorneys from our Montréal and Toronto offices for this informative webinar, designed to help you navigate the laws applicable to your Canadian workforce.
