

Keeping Current in California With Charles and Leslie

Join us for the latest installment of our Keeping Current in California webinar series. In this webinar, Charles Thompson and Leslie Wallis will discuss the challenges California employers face under the state's new employment laws, including the "stay or pay" prohibitions. They will also explore the EEOC's rapidly changing enforcement priorities, along with recent California jury verdicts and cases. Jay Patton, a shareholder in the firm's Birmingham office and a member of the Government Contracting and Reporting Practice Group, will join the discussion to cover California's pay reporting requirements.
