

Keeping Current in California With Leslie and Charles

Join us for the latest installment of our Keeping Current in California webinar series. In this webinar, Charles Thompson and Leslie Wallis will discuss the compliance challenges faced by California employers, including those currently making their way through the California legislature. Leslie and Charles will also address the California Civil Rights Department's new guidance on religious accommodation and discrimination, recent EEOC initiatives, and new California jury verdicts and cases. Finally, they will offer tips on how to reduce the risk of employee misclassification.
