Join us for the latest installment of our Keeping Current in California webinar series. Charles Thompson and Leslie Wallis will provide updates on potential new employment laws in California, Los Angeles County's new Fair Work Week Ordinance, changes to the minimum wage, and new regulations regarding automated decision-making systems. The speakers will also share insights on protections for victims of domestic violence, covering topics such as leave, accommodations, forms, and notices. Finally, they will discuss key takeaways from recent court decisions related to California employment issues.
