DESCRIPTION

The government's post-lockdown exit plan is scheduled to be published soon, and is expected to contain a roadmap for employers with operations in the United Kingdom. In this webinar, the speakers will discuss the key employment law and operational issues facing UK employers as they reopen their workplaces, including:

- managing the return of employees to the workplace and supporting those who must continue to work from home;
- understanding employer health and safety obligations (including data privacy issues related to health information);
- making adjustments to workplace practices;
- ending furlough leave and changing contractual terms and conditions; and
- implementing a fair redundancy (reduction in force) process.
