Join us for an informative update on the latest employment law changes from Maryland's 2025 legislative session. The speakers will discuss the significant updates to Maryland's paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (FAMLI) program, including an overview of the current state of the program and the proposed regulations from the Maryland Department of Labor. They will also explore the new expansions to military discrimination protections as well as clarifications to the Maryland Parental Leave Act. Don't miss this timely webinar, where you will learn practical tips and actionable steps to stay compliant with these new laws.
