DESCRIPTION

Oregon recently joined the list of states that have enacted COVID-19-specific safety regulations. The new regulations issued by the Oregon Occupational Safety and Health Administration (Oregon OSHA) are broad in scope and very detailed. During this webinar, the speakers will explain the requirements of the regulations for all workplaces. In addition, they will discuss written plan requirements, employee training obligations, and appendices for industry-specific activities. The speakers will additionally review action items for compliance and workable solutions for Oregon employers.
