DESCRIPTION

The Nevada Occupational Safety and Health Administration recently issued its “Updated Guidance for Businesses Operating in Phase 2 of Nevada United: Roadmap to Recovery Plan.” The updated guidance includes strict face covering requirements, which are being enforced. In another development, Nevada Governor Steve Sisolak recently signed into law a measure granting limited immunity from COVID-19-related litigation for businesses and government agencies that are in “substantial compliance with controlling health standards.” In this webinar, the speakers will discuss the updated guidance for safe workplaces and provide tips on mitigating the risk of COVID-19-related claims.
