A wave of new federal and state legislation will take effect in 2025, significantly reshaping employment law across the United States. Join this webinar for an overview of these new laws and actions that employers may want to consider in response. The first quarter of each year provides an opportunity for employers to review their handbooks, template agreements, policies, and practices to ensure compliance. In this webinar, the speakers will discuss key developments in various areas, including paid sick and family leave, pay transparency, anti-discrimination protections, workplace safety, employee meetings, non-compete agreements, and more.
