Join us for OSH Law Primer, a webinar series that provides an overview of the Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Act and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), and how they influence workplaces in the United States. This webinar will address how voluntary safety and health self-audits can enhance workplace safety, improve regulatory compliance, and identify trends in safety performance. Topics will include the benefits of self-auditing, OSHA's voluntary self-audit policy, and the legal protections for audit information. The speakers will share practical steps for conducting effective audits and strategies for mitigating potential legal risks.
