DESCRIPTION

Workplace safety and health practitioners have their sleeves rolled up assisting employers with ongoing COVID-19-related investigations, citation appeals, and some of the first trials involving COVID-19 claims. In this OSHA Hour webinar, our speakers will share their insiders' view of the tactics and strategies that OSHA is employing right now and the lessons that can be learned from the agency's recent activities. The speakers will review frequently cited COVID-19 violations, the use of COVID-19 experts, and practical and efficient defense strategies.
