DESCRIPTION

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) Severe Violator Enforcement Program (SVEP) is a federal program designed to focus enforcement efforts on employers that frequently receive OSHA citations. The SVEP targets these employers with heightened inspections, public exposure, and increased enforcement. This webinar will offer a foundational understanding of the SVEP, as well as strategies to minimize the likelihood of being placed in the program. The speakers will also provide tips for managing workplace safety if your organization does find itself within this program.
