

The Surge of Wage and Hour Class Actions in the Pacific Northwest: Part 2

Join us for the second part of our webinar series tailored for businesses with workforces in the Pacific Northwest. In this webinar, the speakers will continue to explore the recent surge in wage and hour litigation sweeping through Oregon and Washington State. The discussion will include recent court decisions and the intensified enforcement efforts by state agencies. Additionally, the speakers will explore the latest Seattle ordinance regarding business expense reimbursement and share practical tips to help your organization prepare for this and other changes on the horizon.
