DESCRIPTION

On April 20, 2020, Georgia Governor Brian Kemp announced that businesses would begin reopening on April 24, 2020. As the phased reopening process continues, Georgia employers must navigate various employment issues related to returning employees to work and to their physical workplaces. In this webinar, the speakers will discuss:

- unemployment compensation benefits;
- best practices for recalling furloughed employees;
- key considerations for developing a return-to-work plan;
- leaves of absence and accommodation issues;
- the impact of employees returning to work on 401(k) plans, health plans, and other benefits; and
- common issues under the federal Occupational Safety and Health Act, including personal protective equipment, safety protocols, and working from home.
