DESCRIPTION

On May 1, 2020, Governor Mike DeWine initiated phase 1 of the Responsible RestartOhio plan. As the state begins to reopen the economy, Ohio employers continue to navigate how best to return employees to work and to their physical workspaces. In this webinar, the speakers will discuss various considerations associated with Ohio's phased reopening plan, including:

- health screenings, temperature checks, and other testing;
- face coverings;
- employee morale and communication;
- employee refusals to return to work and impact on unemployment; and
- workplace policies and mitigation of risk.
