DESCRIPTION

In this webinar, the speakers will discuss how employers in Canada can safely return employees to the workplace while navigating evolving and loosened public health restrictions. The speakers will address provincial and regional differences, as well as the challenges across industries. Additional topics to be covered will include the following:

- employee refusals to return to the workplace;
- employee travel across international and provincial borders;
- provincial responses to temporary layoffs and wage reductions; and
- best practices for keeping employees safe as the pandemic continues.
